

Содержание

САРТСНА Page	3
--------------------	---

CAPTCHA Page

The CAPTCHA page consists of a form with a generated image for verification of the user as either a human or a computer.

For the user to pass the verification, they need to enter the code from the image and click the "Submit" button, after which they will be redirected to the protected site.

For detailed client configuration, you need to go to the DPIUI2 graphical interface.